Description

BOSTON, MA, February 24, 2025 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH), a full-service business law and litigation firm, announces that Alicia J. Samolis, Partner & Chair of the firm’s Employment & Labor Practice Group, was named a 2025 “Go To Employment Lawyer” by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly. She and fellow honorees are featured in the publication’s Feb. 24 edition.

“Go To” Lawyers are nominated by their peers and chosen by a panel from Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly. Honorees are selected for demonstrating in-depth knowledge in their field and deep experience with a record of success, according to the publication.

“Alicia is an indispensable advisor and advocate in employment law. Her ability to navigate complex legal landscapes and her proactive involvement in emerging employment issues position her at the forefront of the field. We congratulate her on this well-deserved honor,” said PSH Co-Managing Partners Paul M. Kessimian and Jay R. Peabody in a joint statement.

Samolis represents businesses and management in both litigation and compliance matters across Massachusetts and Rhode Island, as well as at the national level. She advises management at all stages of the employment relationship, regularly counseling senior management, human resource professionals and business owners on applicable employment laws and pending legislation. Her expertise includes a broad range of employment issues, such as wage and hour compliance and defense, employment discrimination and harassment issues, employee handbooks, manager trainings, employee leaves of absence, employee use of artificial intelligence in the workplace, compensation systems, noncompetition enforcement and defense and individual and group terminations.

Samolis’ litigation experience is extensive. She defends employers in disputes in state and federal court, the Rhode Island Commission for Human Rights, the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Attorney General audits, federal and state wage and hour agencies, state and federal discrimination agencies, and other mediation, arbitration and administrative proceedings.
