

Partnership for Philanthropic Planning of Rhode Island Elects Elizabeth Manchester to Serve as President

Description

Partridge Snow & Hahn counsel, Elizabeth O. Manchester, has been elected to serve as President of the Board of Directors for the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning of Rhode Island (PPPRI). In her 5th year as a member and with her extensive experience focusing on best practices in compliance, charitable gift planning and the implementation of planned and estate-giving strategies for tax-exempt entities, Elizabeth is poised to have a positive impact in the role of President.

The mission of PPPRI is to increase the quality and quantity of charitable planned gifts by serving as the voice and professional resources for the gift planning community. They are dedicated to furthering the gift planning profession through education and professional development. They are an association of advancement professionals and colleagues from allied fields and they boast over 100 Rhode Islanders in membership.

To learn more about PPPRI, visit their website at pppri.org.

Date Created

June 9, 2020