

Partridge Snow & Hahn Ranked in Chambers USA 2017 in both Rhode Island and Massachusetts

Partridge Snow & Hahn is pleased to announce that numerous practice areas and attorneys have been recognized by their inclusion in Chambers USA 2017. The firm was lauded for its work with emerging growth companies in the technology sector, and also noted for its work in equity financing, tax and bank regulatory issues. Specific practices highlighted include the corporate/commercial, labor and employment, general commercial litigation and real estate groups.

Attorneys in both Massachusetts and Rhode Island were recognized for their work. They include William R. Moorman, Jr., Bankruptcy/Restructuring; James H. Hahn, John E. Ottaviani, John J. Partridge, Corporate/Commercial; Michael A. Gamboli, Labor and Employment; Melissa E. Darigan, Howard Merten, Steven E. Snow, Litigation; Richard Nadeau, Real Estate. David M. Gilden was highlighted for his work in both Corporate/Commercial and Real Estate.

Chambers is widely recognized as one of the industry's preeminent legal guides, relying on client interviews, bodies of work, and the effectiveness and capabilities of the applicable departments in order to compile its rankings.

Date Created

June 2, 2017