

PS&H Partner Colin Coleman is panelist at 2018 Cybersecurity Summit

Colin Coleman, a partner at Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP, is a panelist at PBN's Cybersecurity Summit on Thursday, October 11th.

Topics to be discussed include:

- Identifying your cybersecurity vulnerabilities and adapting your business model accordingly
- Budgeting for a robust cybersecurity plan
- Evaluating suppliers and vendors and their impact on your security
- Exploring cyber insurance policies for your company
- Preparing for a cyber breach with an incidence response plan
- Identifying and employing resources to assist you
- Top cyber threats and concerns for 2019 and how to combat them
- Employee training: they are still your biggest security threat
- Blockchain integration – is it for you?
- Safeguarding international relationships and transactions
- Mitigating risk with the Internet of Things (IoT) as well as social, mobile, digital and collaboration platform threats

Panelists include:

- Wade Chmielinski, AVP, Cyber Security Consultant, FM Global
- Colin Coleman, Partner, Partridge Snow & Hahn
- Jason Farmer, Senior Solution Manager, RiskSense
- Cindy Lepore, Client Executive/Business Insurance, Marsh & McLennan Agency
- Larry Selnick, Director, Treasury and Payment Solutions, Webster Bank
- Eric Shorr, President, Secure Future Tech Solutions
- Francesca Spidalieri, Senior Fellow for Cyber Leadership, Pell Center, Salve Regina University
- Jeffrey Ziplow, Cybersecurity Risk Assessment Partner, BlumShapiro

UPDATE: The day of the event, PBN published the article Panelists at PBN Cybersecurity Summit warn threats are growing, in which, Colin Coleman was quoted as saying a “playbook” for responding to cybersecurity breaches is essential for businesses. To read the article, click here. (Subscription required)

Date Created

September 26, 2018